IT IS ORDERED AND YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that no insurance agent's or solicitor's license shall be renewed, reinstated, or issued to Vissutty T. Yin (the "former licensee") and no appointment or affiliation of the former licensee as an agent will be accepted, until further order of the Commissioner.

THIS ORDER IS BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:

1. The former licensee was licensed as a resident Life and Disability and Property and Casualty agent from April 30, 2003 to February 5, 2005, when said license expired.
2. Farmers Insurance Group of Companies (FIG), through its Audit Manager, Greg Dahinden, has provided documentation supporting the conclusion that the former licensee converted premium monies to his personal use. Information provided by FIG confirms the former licensee converted premium monies to his personal use totaling approximately $1,799.00 from approximately 5 consumers.
3. In a handwritten statement, dated January 5, 2005, he gave to FIG, the former licensee admitted to taking the premium monies and converting them to his personal use.

By this conduct, the former licensee has demonstrated himself to be untrustworthy and a source of injury and loss to the public and not qualified to be licensed as an insurance agent or solicitor. This refusal to renew, reinstate, or reissue a license is pursuant to RCW 48.17.070 and RCW 48.17.530(1), (b), (d), and (h).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that you return your insurance agent's license certificate to the Commissioner on or before the effective date of the revocation of your license, as required by RCW 48.17.530(4).

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING

You have the right to demand a hearing to contest this Order. During this hearing, you can present your argument that the Order should not have been entered for legal and/or factual reasons and/or to explain the circumstances surrounding the activities which are the subject of this Order. You may be represented by an attorney if you wish, although in some hearings before this agency parties do choose to represent themselves without an attorney.

Your Demand for Hearing should be sent to Scott Jarvis, Deputy Insurance Commissioner, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, P.O. Box 40257, Olympia, WA 98504-0257, and must briefly state how you are harmed by this Order and why you disagree with it. You will then be notified both by telephone and in writing of the time and place of your hearing. If you have questions concerning filing a Demand for Hearing or the hearing process, please telephone the Hearings Unit, Office of the Insurance Commissioner, at 360/725-7002.

Your Demand for Hearing must be made within 90 days after the date of this Order, which is the date of mailing, or your Demand will be invalid and this Order will stand. If your Demand for Hearing is received before the effective date of this Order, the penalties contained in the Order will be stayed (postponed) until after your hearing.

It is important to know that if you demand a hearing, you will have two options for how it will be handled:

Option 1: Unless you specifically request Option 2, your hearing will be presided over by an administrative law judge from the Office of the Insurance Commissioner. Under this option, upon receipt of your Demand for Hearing, the Insurance Commissioner may refer the case to an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge is an individual who has not had any involvement with this case. The administrative law judge will hear and make the final decision in the case without any communication, input or review by the Insurance Commissioner or staff or any other individual who has knowledge of the case. This administrative law judge's final decision may uphold or reverse the Commissioner's action or may instead impose any penalties which are less than those contained in the Order.

Option 2: If you elect, your hearing will be presided over by an administrative law judge from the Office of Administrative Hearings. That administrative law judge will issue an initial or recommended decision which will then be sent to the Insurance Commissioner. The Insurance Commissioner, or his designee, will review the initial decision and make the final decision. The Insurance Commissioner's final decision in the case may uphold, reverse or modify the initial decision, thereby changing the penalty which is recommended in the initial decision. In writing the final decision, the Insurance Commissioner is not bound by the findings of facts or conclusions of law which were made in the initial decision.
